A Solo Art Show featuring ceramic artworks and illustrations by artist Erika Rier

OREGON CITY, Ore. - Feb. 20, 2024 - PRLog -- For April the imperfecta art & design gallery presents "At Least We're Not Alone Now," a solo show featuring the marvelous ceramic and illustrations world of artist Erika Rier.

This show focuses on creating art within a community. Using snippets of overheard conversations and creating creatures in the hopes of bringing a smile to a friend's face are the jumping-off point for many of the ceramic pieces in the show. The ink drawings are pieces created for a comic of the same name whose story explores themes of friendship.

The show opens on Saturday April 6, with a reception for the artist (5-7pm, with wine tastings by Christopher Bridge Wines), and runs through April 27. Gallery hours are 11am to 5 pm Tuesday through Saturday. The Gallery is at 117 6th street, Oregon City OR 97045 USA.

Erika Rier is a self-taught interdisciplinary artist creating paintings, ceramics, and art zines in a style she calls folk surrealism. Writing was her first love and she still secretly writes stories. Having lived in Maine, Vermont, Connecticut, NYC, Arizona, and Washington state, Erika now resides in Portland, OR. She also has one of each of the following: a husband, a daughter, a fluffy cat, a curly haired cat, and a little dog.
